

James and Joan Meldrum Honored as Conservation Woodlot Owners of the Year

Bruce Tracy, Franklin County Soil & Water Conservation District Supervisor, presented Jim & Joan Meldrum with a large sign for their Conservation Woodlot. Bruce thanked them at the 63rd annual meeting of the Franklin County Soil & Water Conservation District held Friday, April 15, 2011 at the Mt Blue Middle School in Farmington for the excellent work that has been done over the years throughout their woodlot.

The audience heard that most of the work has been done by Jim. Jim has been working closely with Paul Hersey, District Conservationist and the USDA Natural Resource Conservation Service. Jim plans to continue this working relationship for many years to come and to keep adding conservation practice to enhance to woodlot.

He has already done an excellent job with erosion and sediment control work to improve the trails and to improve the lot to enhance wildlife habitat.
