

Farm Bill Forestry Workshop March 24

FARMINGTON - Franklin County Soil & Water Conservation District will host one of ten informational meetings being held throughout the state for forest landowners and managers interested in the forestry aspects of the 2008 Farm Bill on Tuesday, March 24 at the University of Maine, Farmington in the North Dining Hall room A from 6 -8 pm. The USDA Natural Resources Conservation Service and the Maine Forest Service will be providing up-to-date information on the Farm Bill and how owners of forest land can receive financial assistance in caring for their woods. They will also learn what monies are available for what programs and practices. The session will include plenty of time for questions and answers.

To register, call FCSWCD at 778-4279, stop by the office at 107 Park St., Farmington or e-mail info@franklincswcd.org. Those who register by 4 pm Friday, March 20 and are present at the meeting will be placed in a drawing for the door prize. Register early and take advantage of this special offer.
